We are sending trees and plants to almost all the states and territories. Some of the states have passed laws to regulate the traffic in Trees and Plants. We wish to state that we have complied with such laws, as they are known to us and have given our bond where demanded, and will comply with any further laws that may be enacted by any state. We also have the nursery inspection tags for states which demand such.

PACKING—In order to be able to handle our fast increasing trade, we have built a new packing house and cold storage room of the newest and most approved pattern. Our trees are not exposed to sun or wind while being stored and packed. We guarantee that all plants and trees reach our customers in fresh, healthy condition, no matter where they go.

CARE OF STOCK ON ARRIVAL—Promptly on arrival the trees or plants should be unpacked and planted, or else the roots should be protected from sun or air by covering with moist dirt. If the ground is frozen outside, or the packing material in the cases frozen, store the original package in a cool, moist cellar until the conditions are favorable for handling. Care should be taken in choosing soil and environment to the end that success may reasonably follow your labors in planting. Shipments delayed in transit and which open up too dry and appear to be shriveled, should be soaked in water over night, which will resuscitate them.

CLAIMS—All claims for errors, shortage or anything else pertaining to your shipment, must be made promptly after receipt of goods. In writing us about your shipment, please remember to give order number and full particulars. Human help is not infallible and shipments as well as mail matter will miscarry, but please understand this: That the complete satisfaction of our customers is our first wish, and that we gladly rectify any and all errors on our part.

PREPAID FREIGHT—We prepay freight charges to any railroad station in the United States (excluding steamship and stage charges), on all orders for Trees and Plants amounting to $10.00 net or over, when cash is sent with order or remittance in our hands before shipment is made. If you wish small trees, roses or flowering plants sent by mail, add 5 cents to each plant for postage.

REMITTANCES should be made by Postoffice or Express Money Orders, Bank Draft or Registered Letters. For amounts less than $1.00 postage stamps can be sent.

QUALITY OF STOCK—Our Trees and Plants are well and carefully raised and grafting and budding are done by experienced workmen. Nothing is left undone to insure well developed, straight trees, with good even tops and without forks. You will find our trees graded to the sizes given in this catalogue, and you will get just what you order.

APPLE TREES

We grow our apple both from buds and grafts, the method depending on which will produce the better tree from a given variety. The varieties listed here have all been tested by us personally and are those we can recommend for Western planting. We have marked the most desirable varieties with a *. We sell 5 trees at rate per 10 and 50 trees at rate per 100.

ONE YEAR APPLE

We grow thousands of one year apple from both buds and grafts, for the commercial orchard trade and, our customers say, they get better results with this class of stock than any other. The tops are mostly straight whips, one year's growth, and the roots are two years old. They can be headed to any desired shape and, with proper care in planting, the loss is insignificant.

CHERRY TREES

Good cherry trees will be scarcer and higher the next few years than they have been for several years past. The demand for this tree has trebled in the past three years and the growers are scarcely able to keep pace with it. As the new orchards come into bearing, the planters begin to realize the profits to be gained by cherry growing and are planting more cherries.

We are proud of the quality of trees we are able to produce here and maintain that our trees are not excelled, for health and vigor, by any country in the world. We have our usual stock this year and hope to be able to fill all orders.

ONE YEAR CHERRY

This is the ideal tree for planting in the large, commercial orchard. We bud them on strong growing, heavy stock and they make husky, healthy little trees from three to five feet high that are chock full of life and vigor. We are seldom called on to replace one of these trees and we sell them by the tens of thousands.
